Training Action name:	Development of Essential Life Skills through Community Building: Building Connections and Support Networks
Date:	[Date of the Event]
Duration:	[hours of the event]
Location:	[Venue of the Event]
Organizer	[JUMP]

2. Event Objectives

This session is designed to equip participants with essential life skills such as empathy, relationship-building, and resilience through interactive and engaging community-building activities. By fostering a sense of belonging and mutual support, participants will explore the value of both personal and professional networks in overcoming challenges and creating opportunities for growth. Through discussions, practical exercises, and real-life examples, they will gain insights into how strong connections contribute to personal well-being and career development. The session also encourages self-reflection and active participation, helping individuals recognize their own role in building and maintaining meaningful relationships. By the end of the training, participants will have a deeper understanding of how to cultivate supportive networks and apply these skills in everyday life.
